HOLIDAY MUSIC IN THE AIR:

On Monday, December 8th in our galleria there will be a short concert of madrigals. These choral pieces will be from the Elizabethan time period. The group of 8 singers (students, faculty & staff from Stony Brook and members of the community) will be conducted by Julia Zavadsky, a SB doctoral student and an adjunct faculty member at Temple University in Philadelphia.

Please plan to stop by at 12:00 noon at the center galleria near the first flight of stairs . You will be in for some light-hearted sounds!

CONDOLENCES TO KATHLEEN HORAN:

Kathleen Horan's mother passed away last night in Florida, after a long illness. For those of you who wish to make a donation in her name, please consider the two charities listed below or David will collect money until 12/10 and then send a donation from the library. The following is from her e-mail that David Weiner received this morning:

"My mother was a long-time supporter of two Catholic charities. In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in her name to either one. They are:

Maryknoll Sisters
P.O. Box 317
Maryknoll, NY 10545

Society of the Little Flower
1313 Frontage Road
Darien, IL 60561"

S.E.F.A. UPDATE:

Have a heart and be part of S.E.F.A.

There are 15 staff who have donated to the 2003 campaign. On December 19th, there will be a drawing for a gift certificate to Seawolves Market - those from the libraries who participated need to keep raffle tickets handy. If any one else wants to be part of this effort to contribute to Long Island based organizations see Maryanne!
