News from Personnel:

To all Library UUP staff: The Office of the Provost has informed us that discretionary award recommendations have been approved and notifications can be made to staff. Letters are being prepared for distribution. Faculty will be notified through inter-office mail; Professional staff letters will be mailed to home addresses.

EVENT TO ATTEND:

November 14, 2002: Author Reading/Signing Event featuring three Stony Brook University Authors. Please join us in the Javits Room (2nd floor of the Melville Library) from 5pm-7pm on Thursday, November 14.

Three of Stony Brook's most popular authors will read selections from their latest works. A discussion and book-signing will follow. Sponsored by the Melville Library and the University Bookstore.

Bill Simmons, VP for Advancement and Executive Director of the Stony Brook Foundation, will read from his novel Rolling Thunder.

Howard Gimple, Communications Department, will read from Deadly Refuge.

Fred Gardaphe, Professor of Italian American Studies, will read from Moustache Pete is Dead: Italian American Oral-Tradition Preserved in Print.
