CORRECTION:

Maryanne misunderstood Thomas when he left a couple of weeks ago (I thought he said his mother died). He called the Director's Office today to say that his mother is still the same; she is very seriously ill. He will be back at work on Nov. 14th. So sorry for the guffaw!

EXHIBIT IN THE LIBRARY GALLERIA:

Exhibit Announcement: This is woman's hour....: The Life of Mary Baker Eddy.

Date: November 1, 2002 - December 31, 2002
Location: Library Galleria
Reception: Monday, November 18 from 5pm-7pm, Library Galleria

The Special Collections Department is hosting the nationally acclaimed Mary Baker Eddy exhibit, "This is woman's hour...." from November 1 - December 31. Mary Baker Eddy (1821-1910) was an influential American author, activist, and teacher, noted for her groundbreaking ideas about women's rights, spirituality, and health. In 1908 she launched The Christian Science Monitor, a leading international newspaper which has received seven Pulitzer Prizes.

The exhibit was designed by The Writings of Mary Baker Eddy in collaboration with the Women's Rights National Historical Park in Seneca Falls, New York (a National Park Service facility). This touring version has traveled to numerous states and has been seen by over 1.5 million visitors at public libraries, university libraries, and state capital buildings. The exhibit features videos, interactive listening stations, news clippings, and photographs.
