IN THE NEWS: (Submitted by Kristen Nyitray)

Special Collections has the archive of author of C . David Heymann. His forthcoming book is titled Bobby and Jackie: A Love Story (Robert Kennedy and Jacqueline Kennedy) and it has already attracted much attention from the media.

If reporters inquire about this archive, please direct all calls to the Office of Media Relations at 632-6310. This office handles all media inquiries for the university and they will contact me, if necessary.

DEER PARK WATER:

The Libraries areas (14) will continue to receive delivery of bottle water. We can thank Administrative Council for approving this service. Each area will receive delivery/pickup in the same quantities as last year. If there is any "issue" such as not getting a delivery or a problem with the cooler inform Maryanne. This will be helpful for reconciling the deliveries with the invoice before authorizing payment.

TEAM NEWS:

Publications and Publicity Team has created two information posters. Each is 30" x 34" on vinyl material. These posters are located in the galleria within the showcase at the base of the stairs leading to Javits Room/Circulation Services. TAKE A LOOK !

The team thinks they are impressive and will withstand many years of display. The information should remain constant for some time. One poster is titled Wolfie's Library Tips and the theme of the other is Stony Brook University Libraries .

There are two vacancies on the P & P Team.

Two librarians have stepped down: Susan Lieberthal and Paul Wiener.

Please give some thought to being part of this team which promotes the libraries!

You are welcome to attend an upcoming meeting held on Tuesday, August 4, 10:15 - 11:30, in the small conference room.
If there is a lot of interest the large room will be used.
