UNION WORKSHOPS....

Learn Something New!

If you made a New Year's resolution to learn something just for the fun of it this year, the Union is sponsoring a program of skills and crafts workshops this Spring that gives you more than 30 good reasons why you should keep that promise to yourself.

Wood Working, Metal Sculpture, Jewelry Making, Silkscreening, Metal Enameling, Flight Instruction, Japanese Flower Arranging, Patchwork and Quilting, Leathercrafts, Macrame, Middle Eastern Dancing, Pottery, Painting — these are just some of the many enjoyable, practical and interesting workshops open to everyone on campus.

Two others, The Art of Walking and Camping and Bicycle Touring and Camping provide options to the energy crisis, while Astronomy and Astrology and Human Understanding help you put your Kohoutek-inspired enthusiasm for the "stars" to good use.

From Junk to Junque offers ideas for tuning discarded items into beautiful antiques, and Decorating on a Shoe String explains how to make the most out of a room's shape and space with professional decorating tips that won't bankrupt you.

photography course), Bicycle repair, Introduction to Gardening, Japanese Calligraphy and Brush Painting, Natural Cosmetics and Skin Care, Shells — Gifts from the Sea, and Tai Chi Chaun (an ancient Chinese system of exercise) complete the list of workshop offerings.

Most of the Union workshops will begin during the first weeks of February (a few will begin in early March), and will be held during weekday evening hours. A few workshops will be held on Saturday: Advertising Directions, Decorating on a Shoe String, Introduction to Gardening, and Pottery.

Workshops run from 90 minutes to three hours and are scheduled for six to twelve sessions, depending upon the subject. The Union has a descriptive brochure on "Workshops '74" — pick one up on the second floor the next time you're there or call 6-7107, 6-3657, or 6-3515 to have one sent to you.

Workshop registration will take place on the second floor of the Union from 1-7 p.m. on Monday, January 28, from 3-8 p.m. on Tuesday, January 29, and from 5-8 p.m. on Wednesday, January 30.

AFFAIRS

Dr. Elizabeth Wadsworth

The appointment of Dr. Elizabeth Wadsworth as Vice President for Student Affairs at Stony Brook was announced on January 23 by President John S. Toll.

The appointment, approved at the recent meeting of the State University Board of Trustees in Albany, follows an extended national search to fill the position.

"Our search committee unanimously recommended Dr. Wadsworth as the best candidate for this extremely challenging position," President Toll said in announcing the appointment. "Dr. Wadsworth's extensive experience and demonstrated abilities in working with young people should be especially valuable to the University as she assumes this vice presidency's heavy responsibilities for leadership in student program development and in the management of a wide range of student service operations," President Toll added.

Dr. Homer Goldberg, Professor of English at Stony Brook who served as chairman of the faculty-staff-student search committee for the position, said members of the committee "are very pleased that President Toll and University officers in Albany acted favorably on our recommendation of Dr. Wadsworth. She has remarkable qualities of imagination, resourcefulness and sensitivity that make her particularly well qualified for the special challenges of this position. She will be an invigorating force in the life of this campus."

As Vice President for Student Affairs, Dr. Wadsworth will be responsible for all divisions and programs in the Office of Student Affairs, including University housing and the residential college program, residential counseling, admissions, financial aid, orientation, the Office of Records and the Stony Brook Union, Guidance Services, Psychological Services, the Career Development Office and International Student Affairs.

Since 1968, Dr. Wadsworth has been national counseling and training director for the YWCA's federally funded Job Corps general and vocational education program for young women from poverty backgrounds. In 1967-68, she served as master trainer for Newark New Careers, a U.S. Department of Labor funded paraprofessional training program for residents of poverty areas.

From 1962-66, Dr. Wadsworth was coordinator of the AUI-Interamerican University Foundation, a privately sponsored U.S. study program for Brazilian university student leaders, a program partly funded by the U.S. State Department.

Dr. Wadsworth was Director of Communications for the Bank Street College of Education in New York City in 1961-62. She is a former editor for American Youth Hostels, has been President of the Vassar Club of New York City and, for several years, taught English and raised funds for various institutions in Rio de Janeiro.

Dr. Wadsworth completed work on her Ph.D. degree at New York University this year, doing work in Human Development, Social Relations, Psychology, Social Psychology, and Psychometrics. She received an M.A. Degree from NYU in 1967 and a B.A. Degree from Vassar.

Dr. Wadsworth presently is residing in a student room in Ammann Residential College in G Quad on campus and expects to continue residing in campus student housing throughout the current semester.

FACULTY NEWS...

DR. SEMMEL PUBLISHES BOOK ON METHODISM

Dr. Bernard Semmel, Professor of History, published a book in 1973 which was a recent monthly selection of the History Book Club. Titled The Methodist Revolution, the book puts forth Dr. Semmel's view that Methodism was not a repressive force in nineteenth century England, contrary to the prevailing view of many historians. Instead, Dr. Semmel explains, Methodism had a decisive role in shaping England's progressive attitudes.

According to Dr. Semmel, the Methodist Revolution of 1739 was England's equivalent of the "democratic revolution of the eighteenth century." It was through Methodism, he says, that liberal and egalitarian ideals were presented to the lower orders of English society.

Dr. Semmel researched his book while on leave from the campus as a Guggenheim Fellow.

DR. BOWMAN WINS AWARD

Dr. Malcolm J. Bowman, Assistant Professor of Marine Environmental Studies, was recently awarded $100 by the Society of Sigma XI, a national honor society for the encouragement of scientific research. The award will be applied to his study of sewage pollution in western Long Island Sound.

Dr. Bowman has studied this problem for two years, and is seeking to determine how much of the 500 million gallons of sewage released daily into the East River migrates into the sound.

In his research, Dr. Bowman works with graduate and undergraduate students as well as full-time staff and post-doctoral fellows of the Marine Sciences Research Center.

Sigma XI frequently allocates funds to individuals as part of its Grants-In-Aid Research Program.

DR. TURSI HONORED

Dr. Joseph A. Tursi, Chairman of the Department of French and Italian and Associate Professor of Italian, was the recipient of the New York State Distinguished Leadership Award at the recent 56th Annual Convention of the New York State Association of Foreign Language Teachers. Dr. Tursi, the outgoing President of the Association, was praised by its membership for "his outstanding leadership, dedication, and service to the profession in furthering the advancement of foreign language study."

Dr. Tursi will chair the Northeast Conference on Language Teaching which will be held in Washington, D.C., April 18-20, 1974.

MATH FACULTY WILL LECTURE INT'L. SCHOLARS

Four members of the Stony Brook mathematics faculty, Professor Jeff Cheeger, Associate Professor Roger Howe, Professor Bernard Maskit (Chairman of the Department), and Professor James Simons, have been invited to give specialized talks at the next International Congress at Vancouver, B.C., in August, 1974.

The Congress is the only worldwide gathering of people from all branches of mathematics. It meets every four years and its planners invite 16 expository lectures and approximately 150 specialized talks.

It meets every Wednesday throughout the school year in an informal, bag lunch seminar-type meeting in Room 213, Stony Brook Union (adjacent to the Buffeteria, from which lunches can be trayed). ## ANNOUNCEMENT

FROM VINCENT A. RUGGI,
DIRECTOR OF PAYROLL:

The following is a correction regarding the item on Social Security payroll deductions which appeared in the January 18 issue of THIS WEEK:

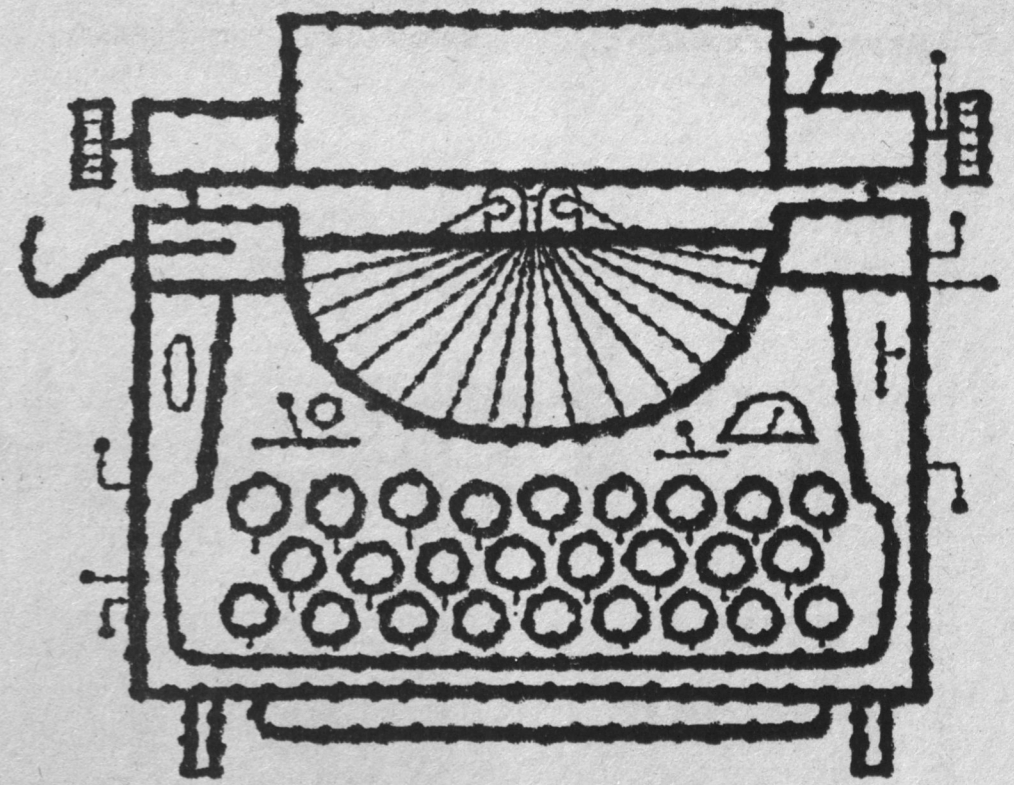

FOR 1974, EMPLOYEES WAGES WILL BE TAXED FROM THE FIRST $13,200 FOR THE FICA TAX. THE TAX RATE WAS NOT INCREASED AND REMAINS AT 5.85%, AS PREVIOUSLY STATED.

Union Do's

This week, the Union's International Cooking Exchange will feature KUGEL, the noodle or potato pudding from Eastern Europe which is cooked in a flat pan and served in a crust shell.

If you want to learn how to prepare KUGEL, get a copy of the recipe, and taste how good the dish really is, drop in to the Union Galley on Tuesday, January 22, from 12:15-2:30 p.m.

CAMPUSWIDE TYPEWRITER REPAIRS

Beginning April 1, 1974, all requests for typewriter service will continue to be directed to the Office of General Institutional Services. However, while some repairs will continue to be done by the University typewriter repair service, others will be directed to an outside repair service under contract.

University repair service calls will be subject to a nominal recharge and receipts from these recharges will defray some of the expense of the outside service. This will be done to facilitate an equalized system of cost whereby users of the campus service and users of the outside service pay an approximate rate for each service call.

"Rainy Day Crafts" Starts January 30

What can you do on a rainy day? Every other week, the SB Union sponsors a free program which solves this problem and offers students relief from the weekly grind: "Rainy Day Crafts."

Every other Wednesday, from 1-4 p.m. in the Union Main Lounge, the program provides the materials and know-how to learn some crafty things to put together on "a rainy day."

"Rainy Day Crafts" starts on January 30 with DECOUPPAGE, a type of three-dimensional design. Using silicone, glue, duplicate copies of designs you'll make yourself, etc., you will be able to create a master design uniquely your own that can be turned into a pin, ornament or whatever your imagination decides it should be! As a last step, you'll lacquer it to give it a brilliant sheen.

"Rainy Day Crafts" coming events: WALL HANGINGS (Feb. 13); T-SHIRT DECORATION (Feb. 27); NATURAL MATERIALS ARTWORK (Mar. 13); EASTER CUT-OUTS AND SEE-IN'S (Mar. 27); KNOT-TYING AND MACRAME (Apr. 17), and TERRARIUMS AND INDOOR GARDENS (May 1).

If you want any additional information about "Rainy Day Crafts," call Susan Keil at 6-7109.

Recent Appointments to University Committees...

DR. ELIZABETH WADSWORTH, recently named Vice-President for Student Affairs, has been appointed to the University's Drug Advisory Committee.

Faculty-Staff Directory Changes

The deadline for submitting Personnel Data Change Forms (SUBS 74) to the Personnel Office for corrections to the individual listings in the back of the Faculty-Staff Directory is January 31. Forms submitted to the Personnel Office after that date will not affect a change in the directory listings.
