ALUMNI ACTIVITIES 1981-82

The Stony Brook Alumni Association is your link with the University. As a graduate you will receive the bimonthly issue of Stony Brook People. This is the SENIOR EXTRA of that publication.

You will soon be a member of the Stony Brook Alumni Association by virtue of your graduation. As an active member, however, you are entitled to continued use of the library, gymnasium (pool and racquet ball and squash courts), discount travel and discount buying programs. Also, you too are now eligible to be a member of the Stony Brook Roster.

The Alumni Association and Office of Alumni Affairs sponsors many activities during the year, such as:

May 23, 1981

Planting Fields Aboretum, Oyster Bay, provided a beautiful setting for Stony Brook's first 20-year reunion. Graduates from the classes of 1961-65 came back to the original campus location and reminisced on years gone by...

June 19, 1981

One hundred and fifty New York City alumni gathered at Cam Fung Restaurant in Chinatown for an initial chapter reunion. University President Marburger joined Lou Manna '78, chapter organizer, in welcoming alumni that represent our 20-year life.

Homecoming Weekend

October 2, 1981 - An estimated 1,000 people gathered for a rare night football game under the lights. Football alumni met for a pre-game reception in the Administration Building to kick off the Patriots Booster Club. A 160-piece marching band escorted the alumni onto the field and school spirit came alive...

October 3, 1981

Members of the class of 1971 reunited at the Victoria House 1890 for a lively dinner-dance to commemorate their ten-year reunion...

October 24, 1981

On a more serious note, alumni returned to campus for the first Alumni College Day, to be held annually. Eleven faculty members offered seminars on topics ranging from nuclear arms control to ceremonial incest...

February 12, 1982

Basketball alumni were victorious over the Stony Brook J.V. team and celebrated at a wine and cheese reception following the Stony Brook Patriots vs. Cortland game...

March 8, 1982

Stony Brook Alumni joined with alumni from 20 other State University of New York campuses for a gala Washington, D.C. reception hosted by SUNY Chancellor Clifton Wharton...

April 14, 1982

Stony Brook Alumni - Making it in Massachusetts. Alumni now living in Massachusetts, totalling 288, were invited to meet with Dr. Marburger for a wine and cheese reception in Boston...

May 1, 1982

Alumni Night at The Fine Arts Center features a student production of Romeo & Juliet...

May 15, 1982

Classes of 1962 and 1972 will celebrate their 20- and ten-year reunions at a dinner-dance at Roth Cafeteria. Enthusiasm is high for meeting up with old suitemates and long lost friends...

May 16, 1982

Five and 15-year reunions for the classes of 1977 and 1967 are more informal with a family picnic planned at Roth Pond...

June 2, 1982

Albany area alumni are invited to a reunion to be held at SUNY at Albany Alumni House...

June 19, 1982

Our second annual New York City Chapter reunion.

There are plenty of activities planned for next year. Don't let Stony Brook slip out of your life on graduation day - join the Stony Brook Alumni Association and be a part of it.
