

(Lecturer, clip one for each student. List up to date as of 5/1)

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

1. Gilles Jacquier, France 2
January 11, 2012, in Homs, Syria

2In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

2. Wisut "Ae" Tangwittayaporn, Inside Phuket
January 12, 2012, in Phuket, Thailand

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

3. Mukarram Khan Aatif, Freelance
January 17, 2012, in Shabqadar, Pakistan

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

4. Enenche Akogwu, Channels TV
January 20, 2012, in Kano, Nigeria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

5. Hassan Osman Abdi, Shabelle Media Network
January 28, 2012, in Mogadishu, Somalia

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

6. Mazhar Tayyara, Freelance
February 4, 2012, in Homs, Syria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

7. Mario Randolph Marques Lopes, Vassouras na Net
February 9, 2012, in Barra do Piraí, Brazil

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

8. Rami al-Sayed, Freelance
February 21, 2012, in Homs, Syria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

9. Marie Colvin, Sunday Times
February 22, 2012, in Homs, Syria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

10. Rémi Ochlik, Freelance
February 22, 2012, in Homs, Syria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

11. Anas al-Tarsha, Freelance
February 24, 2012, in Homs, Syria

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

12. Abukar Hassan Mohamoud, Somaliweyn Radio
February 28, 2012, in Mogadishu, Somalia

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

13. Rajesh Mishra, Media Raj
March 1, 2012, in Rewa, India

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

14. Ali Ahmed Abdi, Radio Galkayo, Puntlandi
March 4, 2012, in Galkayo, Somalia

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

15. Ahmed Ismail Hassan, Freelance
March 31, 2012, in Salmabad, Bahrain

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

16. Mahad Salad Adan, Shabelle Media Network
April 5, 2012, in Beledweyne, Somalia

In the final lecture, we memorialize journalists killed during this semester by reading a roll call of their names, newspaper (or station), date and place of death.

Each of you who have been given a slip of paper is asked to:

- A. Stand, say your number, then read the information on the slip of paper (name, name of news outlet, date and place of death).
- B. Stay standing until all are done. I will motion when it's time to sit down.

17. Ali Shaaban, Al-Jadeed
April 9, 2012, in Wadi Khaled, Lebanon